

The Director shall, so far as may be practicable, fix and adjust the rates of compensation of civilian positions of the Agency to correspond to those established under the Classification Act of 1949.

*Rec'd from Mr. Baker, Bureau of the Budget, 24 March 50
W.D.P.*

The Director shall, so far as may be practicable, establish and adjust the classes and grades of civilian positions of the Agency and fix the rates of  compensation therefor to correspond to those established by the Classification Act of 1949, but the number of positions established in grades corresponding to grades 16, 17, and 18 shall not be subject to the limitations on such grades in said Act.
